Admission Policy of St. Anne's Special School

School Address: Sean Ross Abbey, Roscrea, Co. Tipperary

School Website: www.stannesroscrea.ie

Roll number: 19370 O

School Patron: Bishop Fintan Monahan

1. Introduction

This Admission Policy complies with the requirements of the Education Act 1998, the Education (Admission to Schools) Act 2018 and the Equal Status Act 2000. In drafting this policy, the board of management of the school has consulted with school staff, the school patron and with parents of children attending the school.

The policy was approved by the school patron on 22nd June 2020. It is published on the school's website and will be made available in hardcopy, on request, to any person who requests it.

The relevant dates and timelines for St. Anne's School admission process are set out in the school's annual admission notice which is published annually on the school's website at least one week before the commencement of the admission process for the school year concerned.

This policy must be read in conjunction with the annual admission notice for the school year concerned.

The application form for admission is published on the school's website and will be made available in hardcopy on request to any person who requests it.

2. Characteristic spirit and general objectives of the school

St. Anne's is a Catholic Co-educational Special school with a Catholic ethos under the patronage of the Bishop Fintan Monahan.

"Catholic Ethos" in the context of a Catholic primary school means the ethos and characteristic spirit of the Roman Catholic Church, which aims at promoting:

- (a) the full and harmonious development of all aspects of the person of the pupil, a living relationship with God and with other people; and
- (b) including the intellectual, physical, cultural, moral and spiritual aspects; and
- (c) a philosophy of life inspired by belief in God and in the life, death and resurrection of Jesus; and
- (d) the formation of the pupils in the Catholic faith;

and which school provides religious education for the pupils in accordance with the doctrines, practices and traditions of the Roman Catholic Church, and/or such ethos and/or characteristic spirit as may be determined or interpreted from time to time by the Irish Episcopal Conference.

In accordance with S.15 (2) (b) of the Education Act, 1998 the Board of Management of St. Anne's school shall uphold, and be accountable to the patron for so upholding, the characteristic spirit of the school as determined by the cultural, educational, moral, religious, social, linguistic and spiritual values and traditions which inform and are characteristic of the objectives and conduct of the school.

MISSION STATEMENT

St. Anne's established by the Sisters of the Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary in early 1970's, endeavours to provide an education exclusively for students presenting with either a moderate/severe/profound general learning disability, students living with autism and presenting with a moderate general learning disability and in exceptional circumstances, students living with autism and presenting with a mild intellectual disability may be deemed eligible for enrolment in consultation and agreement between parents, the child, the Special Education Needs Organiser and multidisciplinary team members.

In line with our Catholic ethos, St. Anne's having the Bishop of Killaloe as its Patron, endeavours to nourish the educational, social, emotional, spiritual and physical development by supporting each student to achieve the best of his/her ability. The staff of St. Anne's are dedicated in providing the highest quality of care, education and learning to each student and are cognisant in supporting each student to succeed to his/her full potential. We believe each child is entitled to an appropriate educational provision and dignity of each student is maintained at a premium: thus ensuring inclusivity and equality of provision. In partnership with the parents/guardians and families of our children we seek to promote the holistic development of each individual. Guided by our ethos and infused by our dedication at St. Anne's, we celebrate diversity and ability and adhere to our motto 'Together We Can Achieve Great Things'.

Enrolment: St. Anne's has a total number of 48 pupils on roll circa September 2022. An administrative principal teacher, 9 class teachers, 3 part-time teachers (when accessible) and 22.5 Special Needs Assistants provide Individual Education Plans.

This school is a school serving the people in the Parish of St. Cronan's Roscrea, Co. Tipperary, in the first instance, and children who may reside in either parts previously known as Tipperary North Riding, parts of County Laois, parts of County Kilkenny and the South Midlands.

Current Provision St. Anne's accommodates pupils from ages 4 to 18. The school operates under the resources within the regulations laid down by the Department of Education and Skills. School based curriculum guidelines are facilitated by Primary School Curriculum, Junior Cycle Level 1 Programme at post primary level and guidelines for Teachers of Students with General Learning Disabilities. Students are supported by Individual Educational Plans based on assessment (formal/informal) and are developed in consultation with the parents and relevant multi-disciplinary team members. School leaver students engage in a School Leaver's Programme and graduate from school into appropriate adult training services, at 18 years of age. This is a collective practice involving students, parents/guardians, school staff and training services personnel, whom work together on selecting the most fitting and appropriate training centre for each individual. St. Anne's school day commences at 9.00a.m. and ends at 2.40p.m., students at Junior/Senior Infant level (4yrs to 6yrs inclusive) finish at 1.30pm.

3. Admission Statement

St. Anne's School will not discriminate in its admission of a student to the school on any of the following:

- (a) the gender ground of the student or the applicant in respect of the student concerned,
- (b) the civil status ground of the student or the applicant in respect of the student concerned,
- (c) the family status ground of the student or the applicant in respect of the student concerned,
- (d) the sexual orientation ground of the student or the applicant in respect of the student concerned,
- (e) the religion ground of the student or the applicant in respect of the student concerned,
- (f) the disability ground of the student or the applicant in respect of the student concerned,
- (g) the ground of race of the student or the applicant in respect of the student concerned,
- (h) the Traveller community ground of the student or the applicant in respect of the student concerned, or
- (i) the ground that the student or the applicant in respect of the student concerned has special educational needs

As per section 61 (3) of the Education Act 1998, 'civil status ground', 'disability ground', 'discriminate', 'family status ground', 'gender ground', 'ground of race', 'religion ground', 'sexual orientation ground' and 'Traveller community ground' shall be construed in accordance with section 3 of the Equal Status Act 2000.

Special schools

St. Anne's is a special school which, with the approval of the Minister for Education and Skills, provides an education exclusively for students with a category or categories of special educational needs specified by the Minister and does not discriminate in relation to the admission of a student who does not have the category of needs specified.

- St. Anne's School will cooperate with the National Council for Special Education in the performance by the Council of its functions under the Education for Persons with Special Educational Needs Act 2004 relating to the provision of education to children with special educational needs, including in particular by the provision and operation of a special class or classes when requested to do so by the Council.
- St. Anne's School will comply with any direction served on the patron or the board, as the case may be, under section 37A and any direction served on the board under section 67(4B) of the Education Act.

4. Categories of Special Educational Needs catered for in the school/special class

St. Anne's School with the approval of the Minister for Education and Skills, provides an education exclusively for students presenting with either a moderate/severe/profound general learning disability, students living with autism and presenting with a moderate general learning disability and in exceptional circumstances, students living with autism and presenting with a mild intellectual disability may be deemed eligible for enrolment in consultation and agreement between parents, the child, the Special Education Needs Organiser and multidisciplinary team members.

Only pupils who have a recent psychological assessment, where the criteria for enrolment are explicitly outlined as above and a recommendation for a special school setting, can be considered for enrolment.

5. Admission of Students

This school shall admit each student seeking admission except where –

- a) the school is oversubscribed (please see section 6 below for further details)
- b) a parent of a student, when required by the principal in accordance with section 23(4) of the Education (Welfare) Act 2000, fails to confirm in writing that the code of behaviour of the school is acceptable to him or her and that he or she shall make all reasonable efforts to ensure compliance with such code by the student

St. Anne's School provides an education exclusively for students presenting with either a moderate/severe/profound general intellectual disability or children with autism presenting with a moderate general intellectual disability.

In exceptional circumstances, students presenting with autism and mild intellectual disability may be deemed eligible for enrolment in consultation and agreement between parents, the child, the Special Education Needs Officer, and the school. St. Anne's School may refuse admission to a student, where the student does not have the specified category of special educational needs provided for by this school.

Eligibility for enrolment

- a) Completed Application Form signed by Parents/Guardians
- b) Psychological Assessment Report which fulfils;
 - report dated within the last 2 years
 - report confirms the level of the child's General Learning Disability as per school's enrolment criteria as set out above
 - report recommends that a special school placement is required
- c) Applications will be accepted between November 7th and March 16th inclusive, of the year preceding the year of potential enrolment.
- d) On the 31st August on the year of entry the pupil has;
 - i) reached his/her 4th birthday (Primary section) though the Board of Management recommends that a child would have reached their 5th birthday.
 - ii) not reached his/her 18th birthday (Post Primary section)

The Board of Management respects parental choice in relation to enrolment, provided the enrolment criteria are fulfilled.

St. Anne's Special National School, in its Policy of Admissions/Enrolment, respects the rights of the existing school community and the children already enrolled. Consequently, St. Anne's School reserves the right to determine the maximum number of children in each class, bearing in mind:

- Integration of children from Autistic and Severe Classes to Mainstream (Moderate) Classes
- Health & Safety concerns regarding staff and children
- Available classroom space
- Multi-category classes
- Educational needs of the children
- Department of Education & Skills class size directives
- Appropriate supports and resources are available
- Time of school year

6. Oversubscription

Class sizes may vary from class to class depending on the number of students within a class presenting with additional needs. In this regard, some classes may be deemed by the Principal to be full to capacity, as per Department of Education guidelines on special classes, and in this case the Board of Management may direct that no additional pupils may enrol in these classes during the year. School capacity varies according to the needs profile of the students we are catering for at a particular time.

In the event that the school is oversubscribed, the school will, when deciding on applications for admission, apply the following selection criteria in the order listed below to those applications that are received within the timeline for receipt of applications as set out in the school's annual admission notice:

1. Applicants with siblings currently enrolled in the school (including stepsiblings, resident at the same address), priority eldest;
2. Children residing in the parish, priority eldest; depending on class placements available

In the event that there are two or more students tied for a place or places in any of the selection criteria categories above (the number of applicants exceeds the number of remaining places), the following arrangements will apply:

Priority to eldest in accordance with the above criteria – or as determined by Board of Management

7. What will not be considered or taken into account

In accordance with section 62(7) (e) of the Education Act, the school will not consider or take into account any of the following in deciding on applications for admission or when placing a student on a waiting list for admission to the school:

- (a) a student's prior attendance at a pre-school or pre-school service, including naíonraí,

- (b) the payment of fees or contributions (howsoever described) to the school;
- (c) a student's academic ability, skills or aptitude;
- (d) the occupation, financial status, academic ability, skills or aptitude of a student's parents;
- (e) a requirement that a student, or his or her parents, attend an interview, open day or other meeting as a condition of admission;
- (f) a student's connection to the school by virtue of a member of his or her family attending or having previously attended the school;(other than in the case of applicants with siblings currently enrolled as per Criteria 1 above)
- (g) the date and time on which an application for admission was received by the school,

This is subject to the application being received at any time during the period specified for receiving applications set out in the annual admission notice of the school for the school year concerned.

8. Decisions on applications

All decisions on applications for admission to St. Anne's School will be based on the following:

- Our school's admission policy
- The school's annual admission notice (where applicable)
- The information provided by the applicant in the school's official application form received during the period specified in our annual admission notice for receiving applications

(Please see section 14 below in relation to applications received outside of the admissions period and section 15 below in relation to applications for places in years other than the intake group.)

Selection criteria that are not included in our school admission policy will not be used to make a decision on an application for a place in our school.

9. Notifying applicants of decisions

Applicants will be informed in writing as to the decision of the school, within the timeline outlined in the annual admissions notice.

If a student is not offered a place in our school, the reasons why they were not offered a place will be communicated in writing to the applicant, including, where applicable, details of the student's ranking against the selection criteria and details of the student's place on the waiting list for the school year concerned.

Applicants will be informed of the right to seek a review/right of appeal of the school's decision (see section 18 below for further details).

10. Acceptance of an offer of a place by an applicant

In accepting an offer of admission from St. Anne's School you must indicate—

- (i) whether or not you have accepted an offer of admission for another school or schools. If you have accepted such an offer, you must also provide details of the offer or offers concerned and
- (ii) whether or not you have applied for and awaiting confirmation of an offer of admission from another school or schools, and if so, you must provide details of the other school or schools concerned.

11. Circumstances in which offers may not be made or may be withdrawn

An offer of admission may not be made or may be withdrawn by St. Anne's School where—

- (i) it is established that information contained in the application is false or misleading.
- (ii) an applicant fails to confirm acceptance of an offer of admission on or before the date set out in the annual admission notice of the school.
- (iii) the parent of a student, when required by the principal in accordance with section 23(4) of the Education (Welfare) Act 2000, fails to confirm in writing that the code of behaviour of the school is acceptable to him or her and that he or she shall make all reasonable efforts to ensure compliance with such code by the student; or
- (iv) an applicant has failed to comply with the requirements of 'acceptance of an offer' as set out in section 10 above.

12. Sharing of Data with other schools

Applicants should be aware that section 66(6) of the Education (Admission to Schools) Act 2018 allows for the sharing of certain information between schools in order to facilitate the efficient admission of students.

Section 66(6) allows a school to provide a patron or another board of management with a list of the students in relation to whom—

- (i) an application for admission to the school has been received,
- (ii) an offer of admission to the school has been made, or
- (iii) an offer of admission to the school has been accepted.

The list may include any or all of the following:

- (i) the date on which an application for admission was received by the school;
- (ii) the date on which an offer of admission was made by the school;
- (iii) the date on which an offer of admission was accepted by an applicant;
- (iv) a student's personal details including his or her name, address, date of birth and personal public service number (within the meaning of section 262 of the Social Welfare Consolidation Act 2005).

13. Waiting list in the event of oversubscription

In the event of there being more applications to the school year concerned than places available, a waiting list of students whose applications for admission to St. Anne's School were unsuccessful due to the school being oversubscribed will be compiled and will remain valid for the school year in which admission is being sought.

Placement on the waiting list of St. Anne's is in the order of priority assigned to the students' applications after the school has applied the selection criteria in accordance with this admission policy.

Applicants whose applications are received after the closing date, outlined in the Annual Admission Notice, will be placed at the end of the waiting list in order of the date of receipt of the application.

Offers of any subsequent places that become available for and during the school year in relation to which admission is being sought will be made to those students on the waiting list, in accordance with the order of priority in relation to which the students have been placed on the list.

14. Late Applications

All applications for admission received after the closing date as outlined in the annual admission notice will be considered and decided upon in accordance with our school's admissions policy, the Education Admissions to School Act 2018 and any regulations made under that Act.

Late applicants will be notified of the decision in respect of their application no later than three weeks after the date on which the school received the application. Late applicants will be offered a place if there is place available. In the event that there is no place available, the name of the applicant will be added to the waiting list as set out in Section 13.

15. Procedures for admission of students to other years and during the school year

The procedures of the school in relation to the admission of students who are not already admitted to the school to classes or years other than the school's intake group are as follows:

Applications for enrolment during the school year will be considered subject to school policy, available space and the provision of information concerning attendance and the child's educational progress.

Such applications will be dealt with on a case-by-case basis but will normally only be considered for admission on the first day of each new term.

The procedures of the school in relation to the admission of students who are not already admitted to the school, after the commencement of the school year in which admission is sought, are as follows:

In the event of there being more applications to the school year concerned than places available, a waiting list of students whose applications for admission to St. Anne's School were unsuccessful due to the school being oversubscribed will be compiled and will remain valid for the school year in which admission is being sought.

Placement on the waiting list of St. Anne's School is in the order of priority assigned to the students' applications after the school has applied the selection criteria in accordance with this admission policy.

Junior Infants, with the exception of students transferring from another school, may only be admitted to the school prior to 1st September of the year of entry.

16. Declaration in relation to the non-charging of fees

This rule applies to all schools

The board of St. Anne's School or any persons acting on its behalf will not charge fees for or seek payment or contributions (howsoever described) as a condition of-

- (a) an application for admission of a student to the school, or
- (b) the admission or continued enrolment of a student in the school.

17. Arrangements regarding students not attending religious instruction

Our school is of a Catholic ethos and, in keeping with that ethos, children of all or no other faith are welcome to apply to this school.

We respect the decision of parents to withdraw their child/children from taking part in the religious education curriculum, religious ceremonies, school Masses, etc.

The following are the school's arrangements for students, where the parent(s)/guardian(s) have requested that the student attend the school without attending religious instruction (etc.) in the school. These arrangements will not result in a reduction in the school day of such students:

A written request should be made to the Principal of the school. A meeting will then be arranged with the parent(s)/guardian(s) of the student, to discuss how the request may be accommodated by the school.

18. Reviews/appeals

Review of decisions by the Board of Management

The parents/guardians of the student, may request the board to review a decision to refuse admission. Such requests must be made in accordance with Section 29C of the Education Act 1998.

The timeline within which such a review must be requested and the other requirements applicable to such reviews are set out in the procedures determined by the Minister under section 29B of the Education Act 1998 which are published on the website of the Department of Education and Skills.

The board will conduct such reviews in accordance with the requirements of the procedures determined under Section 29B and with section 29C of the Education Act 1998.

Note: Where an applicant has been refused admission due to the school being oversubscribed, the applicant must request a review of that decision by the board of management prior to making an appeal under section 29 of the Education Act 1998.

Where an applicant has been refused admission due to a reason other than the school being oversubscribed, the applicant may request a review of that decision by the board of management prior to making an appeal under section 29 of the Education Act 1998.

Right of appeal

Under Section 29 of the Education Act 1998, the parents/guardians of the student, may appeal a decision of this school to refuse admission.

An appeal may be made under Section 29 (1) (c) (i) of the Education Act 1998 where the refusal to admit was due to the school being oversubscribed.

An appeal may be made under Section 29 (1) (c) (ii) of the Education Act 1998 where the refusal to admit was due a reason other than the school being oversubscribed.

Where an applicant has been refused admission due to the school being oversubscribed, the applicant must request a review of that decision by the board of management prior to making an appeal under section 29 of the Education Act 1998. (see Review of decisions by the Board of Management)

Where an applicant has been refused admission due to a reason other than the school being oversubscribed, the applicant may request a review of that decision by the board of management prior to making an appeal under section 29 of the Education Act 1998. (see Review of decisions by the Board of Management)

Appeals under Section 29 of the Education Act 1998 will be considered and determined by an independent appeals committee appointed by the Minister for Education and Skills.

The timeline within which such an appeal must be made and the other requirements applicable to such appeals are set out in the procedures determined by the Minister under section 29B of the Education Act 1998 which are published on the website of the Department of Education and Skills.

The policy was ratified by the Board of Management of St. Anne's School, Sean Ross Abbey, Roscrea, Co. Tipperary on _____.
